4. That we request our Bishop to continue to give the evangelistic direction to this Conference as he has done so far; and we beseech our preachers and people to devote the coming year to getting near to God and bringing others to Christ beyond all else.

(Signed) Jno. O. Willson,

The committee appointed to consider matters concerning the National Insurance Company of Chicago presented its report, which was adopted as follows:

Your committee appointed to consider matters concerning the National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago, Illinois, in relation to insurance laws of the State of South Carolina, beg leave to report:

We have looked over the correspondence between this company and the Insurance Department of South Carolina, and between the department and the Secretary of the Conference and note:

1. There will be great inconvenience in collecting losses or making adjustments in case of dispute between this company and policyholders when the company cannot be sued in the courts of this State and would not be allowed by the insurance department to adjust a loss or send an agent here for that purpose, to this extent at least, insurance in such a company would not be desirable, unless it complied with the reasonable requirements of our law.

2. While technically the company may be acting within their rights, still the Church can not afford to sanction a course which at least appears to be an evasion of our laws.

3. In the opinion of your committee it would be well for the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to arrange some plan looking to the insurance of its own property.

In view of the ever widening opportunities in the foreign field and the increased demands in the homeland, your Board, after due and careful consideration, recommends that the Conference undertake to raise $75,000 for missions in 1912. REPORTS.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The six institutions of learning owned and fostered by this Conference have made full reports to your Board. In so far as a mere recital of statistics can make known the work of these schools in the field of Christian education, these reports show that in these six schools seventy-one teachers are employed, one thousand and forty-two students are enrolled, the property, including grounds, buildings, and equipment, is valued at seven hundred fifty-one thousand, two hundred and fifty dollars ($751,250.00), and that the interest bearing endowment amounts to $191,900.00.

OUR SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

Our three secondary schools are the Cokesbury Conference School, the Carlisle Fitting School, and the Wofford College Fitting School on Wofford campus. Let us notice that our Church, whether wisely or unwisely, we do not attempt to say, has already entered the field of secondary education, and the task now before us is to maintain and make efficient these secondary institutions already established. If these fitting schools are to attain to the standard of efficiency required by our General Board of Education they must, for awhile at least, receive some financial aid from the Conference. To make these high schools dependent upon tuition fees alone for support is to make the school so expensive that one of the prime objects of the creation of such schools, namely, the religious education of all the people, will be defeated. If on the other hand board and tuition fees be lowered sufficiently to put these secondary schools within the reach of the masses of the people, and at the same time the Church does not give financial help the teachers will be poorly paid, the schools will lack for necessary equipment, and the work done will be inefficient. As your Board sees it such is the gist of the problem that confronts us as a Church in the work of secondary education within the bounds of our Conference.

COKESBURY CONFERENCE SCHOOL.

Six teachers are giving all or a part of their time to this school. Fifty students have been enrolled. The value of the school building and grounds is $6,000.00. The school has an endowment of $1,000.00. Everything points to a successful year. We would place this historic school upon the hearts and consciences of all our preachers and people. We urge that the Conference give to the Board of Trustees permission to raise, in whatever way seems best, funds to furnish books for the library and apparatus for the Science Department. We request that the report of Headmaster Hinkle to the Board of Trustees be published at an early date in our Southern Christian Advocate.

CARLISLE FITTING SCHOOL.

Since the last report of this school to your Board the sum of $950.00 has been spent in making improvements upon the buildings. The plant is valued at $35,000.00 Six teachers are employed, and seventy-five students have been enrolled. The headmaster is looking to have the building taxed to its utmost capacity when the second term of this season begins. The most pressing needs of this institution are more room for boarding students, a laboratory for science work, and a well equipped gymnasium. The standard of the school has been arranged so as to meet the requirements of an "A" grade academy according to the classification of our General Board of Education.

OUR COLLEGES.

These colleges, Lander, Columbia, and Wofford, belong to all our people. They are dominated by the same ideals. Each in its own sphere is doing the same kind of work for the development of our Church, and for the extension of the kingdom of God. Their needs being equal, they have equal claims upon our sympathy and our support.

INDEBTEDNESS.

The indebtedness on these colleges amounts to $136,127.00, divided as follows: On Columbia College, $80,000.00; on Lander, $46,127.00; on Wofford, $10,000,00. In order to keep pace with the spirit of progress in the educational world it was necessary for our colleges to contract these debts for permanent improvement and enlargement; but it is the judgment of your Board that these debts should not be allowed to remain indefinitely to burden and harass the administration of these colleges. We hope that a vigorous campaign may soon be inaugurated that will materially lessen these obligations. As a beginning we urge every pastor and charge to make a special effort to pay the educational assessment in full. It appears that a considerable majority of the pastoral charges of our Conference are failing to do this; for last year the colleges assisted received barely more than three-fourths of the assessment made for them. With proper effort on the part of pastors and people this assessment could be paid in full, and that would mean several thousand dollars every year, applied directly or indirectly, to the retirement of this indebtedness. We therefore urge our preachers to remove this important assessment from the vicissitudes of a fall collection and to arrange for its payment in the early part of the Conference year. We request our Presiding Elders, if practicable, to put more emphasis during our District Conferences upon the subject of Christian education, and upon the importance of full collections for our assessment for Conference education. We respectfully request the editor of our Conference minutes to give in statistical table number 3 of each district the assessment on each charge for Conference education as well as the amount paid.

LANDER COLLEGE.

Value of plant and grounds	$120,000.00
Value of furniture and apparatus	15,000.00
	$135,000.00

There has been a substantial increase in the number of students, 227 having been enrolled at the present session. The new dormitory, beautiful in appearance, modern in every respect, and costing a little over $30,000.00, has been practically finished, and has been furnished throughout at considerable additional expense. The outlay for the furnishing of the new dormitory will be met by current funds. In order to build and equip the new dormitory the trustees were compelled to make some temporary notes. The Board asks that it be given the authority to further mortgage the property to the amount of $15,000.00, if so much be necessary, in order to take up these notes. We recommend that this authority be granted.

Lander College now has an endowment of $2,900.00. The trustees have plans by which they hope to increase it. Such an effort meets with the endorsement of your Board and we ask the Conference to give its approval.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE.

The cost of building	$145,000.00
Furniture and apparatus	13,450.00
Forty acres of land	60,000.00
	$218,450.00

The session of 1911-12 opened as announced on the morning of September 28th, 1911. Twenty-two teachers, including four tutors, are employed. There is a total enrollment of 263 students.

The one imperative need at present in the work of this splendid college is the erection of the administration building, and it ought to go up without further delay, and without further increasing the indebtedness of this institution. The unsightly foundations are beginning to speak to the students of hopes deferred. Your Board calls the attention of the Conference to the gravity of this situation. Longer delay in completing this building may work against the patronage. To decrease the patronage is to decrease the financial income, and at the same time to increase the burdens and embarrassments of the administration. We rejoice to learn that the Board of Trustees at their Conference meeting have determined to put an agent in the field to raise the money necessary for the erection of this building, and they are confident that by the opening of the next session at least a part of the administration building will be ready for use. This effort has the approval of your Board, and ought to meet with the generous support of our people.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The property and resources are as follows:

Seventy-six acres of land	$140,000.00
Buildings	185,000.00
Library, furniture, apparatus	31,000.00
Endowment	183,000.00
	$539,800.00

There are on the campus 432 students—263 in the college, and 169 in the Fitting School.

Approximately $50.000.00 in cash has been collected and added to the permanent resources and property of the college since the last report was made to your Board. We here give the sources from which this amount has been received, and the uses to which it has been applied:

From Andrew Carnegie for the Endowment	$20,000.00
From the General Education Board for Endowment	8,125.00
Through Dr. R. A. Child	12,500.00
Collected for Library Building	8,099.66
	$48,724.66

Thus we see that the college has added $40,625.00 to its interest bearing endowment, and has applied to the liquidation of the debt on the library building the $8,099.66 collected for that purpose. Since Mr. Wofford's gift of $100,000.00, these sums nearly one-half of the original gift, represent the largest amount ever added in a single year to the resources of the college.

On the 6th of November, 1911, ground was broken for the new dormitory, the Carlisle Memorial Hall. The approximate cost of this building without furniture will be $50,000.00. To pay for it the trustees have on hand $15,000.00 in cash; $10,000.00 in notes; and a loan of $25,000.00.

Ninety per cent. of the student body belong to the college Y. M. C. A. Many of them are engaged in some form of Christian work. Fifteen of the students are preparing to enter the ministry. The members of the faculty, recognizing the fact that Wofford College is a religious institution supported by a great Evangelical Church, are striving to train the students in an atmosphere charged with the religious spirit and with Christian ideals.

Your Board calls attention to an imperative need of the college. The teaching force must be increased if the college would maintain that effective individual teaching that has been such a power in its influence and work in the past. To let the college suffer at this vital point because of a lack of funds is to limit that one element in its life and work which has made it truly great. At an early date a new auditorium with rooms for administration and classroom purposes must be provided; for the present chapel is too small for public exercises, and all the classroom space is being utilized.

ASSESSMENTS.

The General Board has placed upon our Conference an assessment of $4,636.00. We recommend an assessment for Conference education of $17,250.00, to be divided as follows: Wofford College and Fitting School, $11,500.00; Columbia College, $5,000.00; Cokesbury Conference School, $750.00.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

The Correspondence School, which now becomes a part of the department of ministerial supply and training, has had the most successful year in its history. The enrollment for the year numbered 1,072 and represented forty-one Conferences.

It is with regret that we accept the resignation of Hon. Robert B. Scarboro as a trustee of Lander College. We nominate in his stead George W. Williams.

Your Board recommends that this Conference endorse the Textile and Industrial School established by our Conference Board of Missions.

The resolution of T. C. O'Dell and others, referred to your Board, has been considered, and a plan will be formulated and presented to the Conference at some future time.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments: L. E. Wiggins and J. W. Lewis, students to Vanderbilt University; L. F. Beaty, assistant editor of Sunday School literature; John O. Willson, President of Lander College; W. W. Daniel, President of Columbia College; S. A. Nettles, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate; J. L. Ray, assistant to the publisher of the Southern Christian Advocate; R. A. Child, financial agent of Lander College; W. A. Massebeau, Conference Secretary of Education.

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

The Board of Managers notes with pleasure the continued success and prosperity of the work at the Epworth Orphanage. It is now caring for more children than ever before, and the applications for admission into the institution are constantly increasing. This makes necessary a more generous response to the calls of the orphanage upon our people for help.

Some needed and valuable improvements have been made during the year, which will be a great convenience and saving to the institution.

Lands in Clarendon county, donated by Brother J. W. McLeod, still remain under his direction and control, though titles to the said lands are in the hands of the orphanage. A more detailed report of the orphanage work for the year will be furnished to the Conference by the reading of the report of the superintendent to the Board of Managers.

The Board congratulates itself, and believes that the Church is most fortunate in having had the services of Brother W .B. Wharton in the past. His duties, which have been arduous and responsible, have, under God, been efficiently performed.

Having re-elected Brother W. B. Wharton superintendent of our orphanage for another year, the Board of Managers respectfully requests the Bishop to appoint him to that work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. Beasley, Chairman pro tem.

W. H. Hodges, Secretary pro tem.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

The Sixteenth Annual Report of the Epworth Orphanage, W. B. Wharton, Superintendent, November 29, 1911: In making our annual report of the Epworth Orphanage for the year 1911, we gratefully acknowledge the mercies and blessings of God upon us and the sympathetic co-operation of our people with us in our work. While there is no assessment laid upon the Church for the maintenance and development of the home, and it must therefore be provided for by voluntary offerings, still there has been no recent financial embarrassment, and there are no complaints to be recorded. The Church appreciates the orphanage and the work it is doing, and God has been gracious to it from the beginning. The conditions of the institution are such as to warrant us in bringing you a favorable report.

The orphanage is steadily growing in a material way and in the number of inmates. This continual enlargement necessarily brings increased responsibilities and greater demands. The expenses of the year, however, have been met, and including the cost of improvements, the financial status as reported at last Conference has been maintained.

We have no financial agent in the field to solicit aid in behalf of the orphanage, and your superintendent, on account of increased demands upon him at the home, has not been able to do very much personally in the matter of representing the work before the Churches. We have, therefore, been shut up to the necessity of sending out circulars and giving notice in our Church and orphanage papers. We have more than ever been dependent upon the pastors of charges and the superintendents of Sunday Schools to present the claims of the work, and we are pleased to acknowledge their faithful co-operation. The offerings under the Work Day proposition have been fairly good, but did not amount to as much as they did last year. The Epworth Leagues of the State have taken more interest in the orphanage than ever before, and they have our sincere thanks for all contributions.

During the year a number of the children have gone out from the institution, but a large number has been admitted. We report a present enrollment of 215.

The farm and garden have yielded fairly good returns, though at one time the prospects were very discouraging. The farming lands are being brought up to a higher state of cultivation each year by the use of homemade and commercial fertilizers, and, had it not been for extremely dry spring and summer months, the products from the farm would probably have excelled any previous record we have made. Even with the dry season more cotton has been made than any preceding year and the corn and oat crops will be sufficient, we think, for our demands.

Crops of hay, peas, and potatoes have been raised. The garden yielded well when the rains began and some vegetables were marketed. The corn crop of last year supplied the stock and furnished grits and meal for the whole orphanage family. The corn for these was ground on the orphanage mill, which was purchased last spring and is run by steam power, owned by the institution. We have six head of stock, thirty head of cattle, and fifty head of hogs. The food furnished by farm and garden, dairy and lot, saves many dollars in expense accounts during the year, and all home-raised food is wholesome for the children.

The industries have had a better patronage, in the main, than last year, and we report them as having met their expense accounts. Some of our boys are learning in these departments lessons and experience that will equip them for self-support.

Some much needed and valuable improvements have been made during the year. The water system has been very much improved by making two three-inch drilled wells and the erection of a large steel water tank of twenty-five thousand gallons capacity and seventy feet high; water is pumped into the tank by electric motor bought for this purpose. In connection with this pipes have been placed under ground with hydrants attached, at different points on the campus, as a protection against fire. The old tanks had become almost useless and the new one was placed just in time to keep up the water supply.

The dining room had become too crowded for comfort, and an annex two stories high was put to the women's building, the second story of which is used for the cook matron and her set of girls, which arrangement is very convenient, and saves the girls from exposure in getting to their work in the early mornings. The lower story is used as the storeroom and the first floor of the woman's building, formerly used as storeroom, has been made into a new dining apartment. This improvement has provided extra room for eight more children.

The educational and religious work of the institution is emphasized. Six teachers are employed in the school work and they are also teachers in the Sunday School. Forty of our children have united with the Church this year on profession of faith. Two religious services are held each Sunday in the church on the orphanage campus. Ten of the children completed the course of study in the orphanage school in June and received certificates to this effect. One of the pleasant features of the closing exercises of the school was the semiannual meeting of the Board of Managers and Trustees. They received the report of the superintendent, looked into the condition of the institution, mingled with the children, and attended the closing exercises of the school.

The health of the children, generally, has been exceptionally good. The number of cases of sickness of any kind has been few; yet we are pained to report the death of three of the children during the year. Lodie Hough died of tuberculosis, to which she was doubtless heir by heredity; Manning Parnell died from pneumonia; and Dan Pope from what seemed general debility. Dr. L. K. Philpot is still the physician of the orphanage and always ready to render his services promptly day or night. During the year Dr. E. M. Whaley has arranged for a weekly appointment at the orphanage, as the physician for eye, nose, and throat diseases among the children. Drs. Dial and Killingsworth have agreed to give dental attention to children and to come to the orphanage to do their work. We record here our sincere appreciation of the splendid service rendered by these physicians, who are men of competency and experience and have rendered their services simply for the good they might do.

Acknowledgment is made of the gifts of corn, flour, groceries, cloth, clothing, and fertilizers from individuals, ladies' societies, and officials of manufacturing establishments, for reduction of freight rates by railroad authorities, and in a number of instances for free transportation. Also for courtesies shown the orphanage by the press in publishing notices and articles which were designed to promote the interests of the work.

This is the tenth consecutive annual report of the present superintendent to the Board of Managers and Trustees and marks the termination of a ten-year period of regular service at the orphanage. During this period notable steps of progress have been made. We note the following: The completion of the Mary A. Lemmon building, used for church and school purposes; the erection of the S. A. Nettles, Martha Fort Williams, G. Walton Williams, and Guy Leonard homes, the George Holmes industrial building, office building, woman's building, Giles J. Patterson chapel enlarged, the introduction of a steam laundry, an improved water system, barns for stock and cattle, with other material improvements.

During this period, also, 450 children have been under the care of the orphanage, some previous indebtedness has been paid, twelve buildings have been erected, titles to 874 acres of land have been tendered the orphanage by Brother J. W. McLeod, the annual contributions have increased approximately from ten thousand to twenty thousand dollars, an endowment of forty thousand dollars has been built up, and the estimated property valuation, including all assets, has increased from fifty thousand to two hundred thousand dollars. Evidently the Lord has set the seal of His approval upon the Epworth Orphanage, and if the future is to be judged by the past, under His guiding hand, the progress it may yet make will be only commensurate with His divine pleasure.

W. B. Wharton, Superintendent.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS—NO 1.

Children's Day.—We are glad to report that the observance of Children's Day is receiving more attention at the hands of our people than formerly. While many of our schools have failed to avail themselves of the opportunity, the increased number has been gratifying. We hope to see the day when every school within our bounds shall fully comply with the disciplinary requirement touching this important matter.

From the best information that we have, a considerable amount of money, collected on Children's Day during 1910, has not been received by this Board. We believe that this is largely due to the fact that our people are not informed as to the direction which these collections should take. We, therefore, urge our preachers and leading laymen to prevent this diversion of a sacred fund by giving our people the necessary information.

We respectfully ask that all moneys collected on Children's Day be sent to our treasurer, Dr. C. B. Waller, Spartanburg, S. C.

L. F. Beaty, President.
H. B. Browne, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS—NO. 2.

It is with profound gratitude to God that the Sunday School Board announces to this Conference that real progress has been made in our work during the past year. More definite plans have been formulated and carried into execution than in former years. District institutes have been held in eleven of the twelve Presiding Elders' Districts. These were well attended in most instances, and the interest manifested was very marked. Our Sunday School forces, both laymen and preachers, have entered into sympathetic and intelligent co-operation with the advanced movements of the Church looking to betterment of our Sunday School work.

Your Board calls special attention to the following:

1. Literature—The report of the Sunday School editor shows a gratifying increase in the circulation of our periodical literature. There has been a net gain in the past year of 101,023 copies.

We are particularly pleased to note the very marked gain in the circulation of the Magazine and the Adult Student. The former, which, in addition to a full treatment of the Sunday School lessons, presents discussions by distinguished experts of every phase of Sunday School work, should be read not only by all our teachers, but also by all our Presiding Elders and pastors. The Adult Student is designed to meet the needs of our organized adult classes, and we recommend its universal adoption by these classes.

2. Model Sunday School Building—The general Sunday School Board has undertaken to erect at Southern Assembly, Waynesville, N. C., a model Sunday School building in which to hold institutes, conferences, and other Sunday School meetings, and which will serve as a model for building committees throughout the Church. This commendable enterprise is heartily endorsed.

3. Wesley Adult Bible Class Department—It is most gratifying to learn from the report of Rev. Charles D. Bulla, superintendent of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department, of the marvelous success of the organized Bible class work.

Our preachers, Sunday School Superintendents, and adult Bible class teachers are urged to organize their classes according to the plan of our Church and to enroll them in the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department. By this means a comradeship will be established, the outcome of which will be the instruction of large numbers of men and women in the word of God and their going forth to accomplish tasks commensurate with their capabilities.

4. Institute Work—We urge that district institutes be held in every district and that wherever practicable circuit institutes also be held. Our Field Secretary will be glad to assist in all details, but the needs of the work require the intelligent co-operation of Presiding Elders, pastors, superintendents, and teachers. The aim is to train our forces for more intelligent and effective service.

5. Field Secretary—Our Field Secretary, Mr. J. M. Way, has been rendering splendid service by going into all parts of the Conference making addresses and doing institute work. He has labored even beyond his strength, not sparing himself nor counting the cost. He has put new life into our institute work, and his addresses have inspired our Sunday School forces to better service than they have rendered hitherto. Your Board has re-elected Brother Way for a term of three years.

The Conference is respectfully asked to continue the assessment of one per cent. on pastors' salaries, and to direct that the same be apportioned by the joint Board of Finance to the several districts. We also ask that collections be made in the early part of the year, and forwarded to Dr. C. B. Waller, treasurer of the Board, Spartanburg, S. C.

L. F. BEATY, President.
H. B. BROWNE, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee, having made inquiry into the interests with which it is charged, begs to submit the following:

We regard the printing press as an indispensable part of our machinery, an agency whose power for good can hardly be overestimated. Next to preaching the gospel from the pulpit, our Church can do no greater and more substantial work than print and circulate wholesome literature.

We have read with interest the reports sent out by our publishing houses. They show a much larger business than any previous year. This means that our people are buying and reading good books. The Quarterly Review has maintained its very high standard, and is worthy of the united support of the Church. It will indeed prove a great benefit to any preacher or layman who will take and read it. Those pages given to the review of books are especially commendable since they furnish an insight into the nature and the merit of the latest books.

We most heartily commend our general organ, The Christian Advocate. It is ably edited, and stands for the defense of the doctrine and the polity of our Church.

We are gratified to know that our own Conference organ, the Southern Christian Advocate, has the largest circulation of any time in its history. The price puts it in reach of almost every one. It helps to make our people intelligent, loyal, liberal and zealous. Furnishing a vast amount of information about the doings of our Church in particular and the progress of Christ's kingdom in general, it is helpful to our preachers and people.

The Advocate has been termed the pastor's assistant. We, therefore, urge upon our preachers and people renewed efforts to increase its circulation until it goes into every home; also let our laymen and preachers continue to write for the "Conference News" page, and, also, to write more elaborately prepared articles for the communication page.

We note with pleasure that our Sunday school periodical literature is, in point of excellence and adaptation to the varied grades for which it is prepared, of such character as to commend it to the patronage of our people everywhere.

We think the Missionary Voice has met a long felt need, and we most heartily recommend it to all of our people.

J. E. Carlisle, Chairman.
J. P. Inabnit, Secretary.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Your Board begs to report continued progress and improvement in the Advocate.

The Conference will remember that it has not been so long ago when five thousand copies was thought to be a large circulation for the paper, and the price was uniformly two dollars per year. More or less difficulty was always experienced in its publication.

It has been the earnest effort of your Board, during its term of service, to lessen and obviate, as far as practicable, these difficulties and overcome the consequent objectionable features of former plans.

We are pleased now to report the largest circulation in the history of the paper, twelve thousand copies, and the price to all only one dollar, when paid in advance. Through all a standard of excellence has been maintained, and the quantity of good, wholesome reading matter each week has been equal to that of any Church organ. These results have not been attained at a single bound; they are the result of steady progress.

Additional improvements are contemplated, and it is the purpose of the publishers to offer more favorable inducements to the preachers for promoting a still larger circulation.

We would recommend, and stress, a more liberal use of the columns of the paper by the preachers in reporting matters of interest in their charges, and by secretaries of the different organizations, in charges or districts, in reporting all matters of interest to the Church.

Your Board is not without a due sense of appreciation of its responsibilities and the difficulty of giving satisfactory service in the publication of your Church organ. Many suggestions arising in the minds of the members of the Conference also present themselves to the Board, and out of it all we are seeking to bring the best possible results. To seek to make the paper the very best at the lowest possible cost is our true aim, and in this effort we hope always to have the heartiest co-operation of the entire connection.

J. W. HAMEL, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—NO. 2.

Your Board of Missions has given careful consideration to all of the matters referred to it. We have carefully gone over the needs of the various Mission charges and given to each the help we were able to give.

The amount contributed for Missions, Home and Foreign, follow:

Paid on assessment for Foreign Missions	$24,225.58
Paid on assessment for Conference Missions	23,038.19
Special for Missions—directed	7,735.13
Contributed by Sunday schools for Missions	2,780.88
Contributed by Epworth Leagues for Missions	626.85
	$58,406.63

The assessments for Missions made upon our Conference for next year are as follows:

Assessments made by the General Board: Foreign Missions	$20,400.00
Home Missions	6,600.00
Assessment made by the South Carolina Conference Board of Missions	23,000.00
	$50,000.00

We call attention to the increased attention given to Missions by the Sunday schools, and urge that the Disciplinary provision concerning the Sunday schools be carried out, and each Sunday school organized into a missionary society. This matter is very necessary where the graded lessons are used and the usual monthly or quarterly missionary lesson is not in the course of lessons prescribed. We recommend to the pastors and superintendents, as an aid to them, "Missionary Methods for Sunday School Workers," by Trull.

We trust that the preachers and missionary workers will help increase the circulation of the Missionary Voice. We also recommend to our brethren "Missionary Principles and Practice," by Speer.

The following petition was submitted to the Board, and the prayer of the petitioners was granted:

SPARTANBURG, S. C., November 22, 1911.

To the Board of Missions and the Board of Education.

BRETHREN: A few weeks ago quite a number of gentlemen, who are interested in educational work among people to whom under normal conditions education seems impossible, met in the city of Spartanburg and discussed the question of establishing and supporting a textile industrial institute. This was the outgrowth of the efforts of Rev. D. E. Camak, who had already established an institute of this kind. The undersigned were appointed a special committee to make suggestions and approach you with a view to having the Conference endorse and in a small way support such on institution during the coming year. We believe that to provide educational advantages for this large class of mill people, advantages related vitally to their industrial and moral life, is of the nature of a civil and religious duty.

We have conferred with a number of mill men, who express themselves as approving and ready to give support to such an institution. Some of them did so enthusiastically. The present condition of the cotton mill business, and the shortness of time we have had to work, have prevented our perfecting any plans towards getting this outside help. We do believe, however, that it can be and will be gotten, if your boards will stand behind us.

We are familiar with the textile industrial institute now being conducted by D. E. Camak and T. J. Carter. We respectfully recommend and petition that Rev. D. E. Camak be appointed to manage this institution during the coming year, and that an appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars be made for his support, and that he be permitted, with the approval of the Conference, to raise such funds as he may be able for the maintenance of the institution. We suggest that a Board of Control of not less than five men be appointed by the Conference.

We also respectfully recommend that the members of the South Carolina Conference keep before the young men of their respective charges the possibilities that they may enjoy in connection with this school.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. Wright Nash,
C. P. Hammond,
H. N. Snyder.

We request the Bishop to appoint Rev. D. E. Camak superintendent of the Textile Industrial Institute of Spartanburg. We also nominate the following trustees of such Textile Industrial Institute: J. W. Speake, S. B. Harper, G. C. Hodges, Dr. H. N. Snyder, L. G. Potter, C. P. Hammond, J. Wright Nash.

We also request the Bishop to appoint Dr. M. B. Kelly missionary secretary.

The Board nominates the following Evangelistic Committee: R. E. Turnipseed, J. W. Speake, E. S. Jones, W. S. Foxworth, E. K. Hardin.

The Board requests all of the brethren who have special or directed contributions for Missions to forward the same through the treasurer of the Board of Missions. Rev. S. B. Harper, Marion, S. C.

Your Board, to whom has been committed the interest of Church extension, is glad to report an increase in the amount of collections over last year. and yet the increase is not sufficient to meet the demands of th Church.

In obedience to the arrangement of the General Conference for each Annual Conference to establish a loan fund; be it Resolved, First, That steps be taken by gifts, collections, and otherwise, to establish the foundation of such a fund.

Second, In endorsement of the action of the General Conference, to erect a church in the city of Washington, D. C., which shall express worthily our faith in Christ, that this Conference pledge itself to raise during the next four years at least five thousand dollars to aid in erecting such a building, and we pledge ourselves to co-operate with the commission appointed by the General Conference.

Third, That our pastors be requested to give as earnest efforts toward raising in full the assessment for Church Extension as is given to any other claim, and that, where practicable, this claim be presented in the early part of the year.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Your Epworth League Board, after carefully considering the conditions of the Epworth League work in the bounds of the South Carolina Conference, beg leave to make the following report:

While the statistics of the League work for the year, as handed in by the pastors of the different charges of the State, were not available for this report, we learn from the officers of the State Board that progress has been made, that we are moving forward and not backward. For any degree of success achieved we are grateful to the Supreme Head of the Church. Still we are forced to admit that the enthusiasm of the South Carolina Conference, as a whole, does not run along Epworth League lines. Of the seven hundred and ninety-six Methodist organizations represented in our minutes there are less than one hundred and twenty-five Epworth Leagues. Large numbers of our pastors have not entered into the work at all. The State officers of the League are anxious for a fuller co-operation on the part of the preachers of the Conference.

The originators of the Epworth League movement saw in it the means of saving our young people to Methodism. The object of the League, as set forth in the Discipline of our Church, is a clarion call to every preacher. "The promotion of piety and loyalty to our Church among the young people, their education in Church history, and their encouragement in works of grace and charity." In view of these facts, and the worthy motive of the Epworth League movement, your Board earnestly begs the privilege of making the following recommendations:

First, That in accordance with that paragraph of the Discipline enjoining the holding of Epworth League conferences in every presiding elder's district, we stand for twelve district League Conferences during the year 1912.

Second, That every pastor attend, if possible, the League Conference held within his district, whether he has a League or not.

Third, That our presiding elders, in making their rounds, do all in their power to stir enthusiasm among our people.

Fourth, That State Epworth League Conferences continue to be held, as in the past, and that every member of the South Carolina Conference League Board meet the State Board at the next State League Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

G. C. LEONARD, Chairman.
A. E. DRIGGERS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee begs leave to make the following report:

There seems to have arisen among our people a feeling of unrest in reference to the temperance question. Some, not knowing the facts, and forgetting that all moral reforms move slowly, have become careless and indifferent. The persistent and untrne position taken by the pro-liquor newspapers of the country, minifying the truth in regard to the effects of prohibition, and obstinately refusing to publish facts as they are, has had a depressing effect upon the minds of many well-meaning people. For these, and other reasons, your committee deems it fitting to embody in this report some things worthy of note. Viewing the situation from a national point of view, we are overwhelmed with proof of great gains for our cause. In 1901 there were five States under prohibition, while today there are eight. In 1901 there were 3,239,336 reople living in prohibition States; today there are 13,464,842. This is an increase of population in the prohibition States alone of more than ten millions of people, or 315 per cent. We find, also, that in almost all the States local option laws have been enacted, and under these laws thousands of municipalities, townships and counties have voted out the saloon. Taking the country as a whole 70 per cent. of its area is dry, and fully one-half, or 45,000,000, of our people are free, at least, from the legalized sale of intoxicating liquors. In our own State thirty-seven of the forty-three counties have branded the traffic as an outlaw, while six counties remain under the curse of the dispensary system. We believe our cause is moving on to a sure and glorious victory, and that our Church remains true to the principles and doctrines enunciated in the word of God. In all this we rejoice, and for these things we express our profound gratitude to Almighty God; but we believe the time has come for a more active and aggressive campaign against every agency operating in behalf of this giant evil.

We deplore the fact that under the interstate commerce laws of our national government liquors may be shipped into territory by liquor dealers where it has been outlawed by the people. Realizing that this largely nullifies the effects of prohibition and strikes a blow at the basal principle of State's rights, we earnestly urge our representatives in Congress and the United States Senate to use every effort in their power to change our interstate laws in this respect.

We greatly deplore the conditions in our State growing out of the blind tiger situation; the lack of law enforcement on the part of some in authority, and the wholesale lawlessness which seems to be rife among our people.

We condemn the stand taken by some of the editors of the secular papers within our commonwealth in publishing liquor advertisements in their columns. We believe this to be a violation of the spirit of the law. We reaffirm our faith in the Anti-Saloon League of this State, and hereby pledge them our hearty moral and financial support.

We recommend that Rev. J. L. Harley be appointed by the Bishop as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and the Hon. J. C. Otts and J. B. Carlisle be elected by this Conference to serve us on the Board of Trustees for next year. We also recommend that a copy of this report be furnished to the press of our State, with the request that it be published and that a copy of it be sent to each one of our representatives in our national Congress.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Neeley, Chairman.
W. H. Hodges, Secretary.

Bennettsville, S. C., November 30, 1911.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Long since it has been recognized that the observance of the Sabbath is not only a religious duty, but also an economic advantage. So that where the law says: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," there is involved a sacred duty to obey God's law and attend His worship, but also it is actually to man's physical and temporal advantage.

Since, however, it is well known that so large a number of persons are disposed to laxly observe this law and actually to abuse the holy day by every sort of work and diversions, and recognizing in this a real peril to society and to our moral institutions and welfare, we should, as watchmen for the best interest of the Church, the family, and the community at large, make our voice heard in behalf of the observance of God's holy day.

Therefore, we recommend that, as pastors, we carefully and earnestly instruct our people as to a sane and proper observance of the Sabbath; that they abstain from ordinary toil, from travel, and from improper diversions on that day; that we, as a Conference, memorialize our State legislature to pass some law which, if possible, shall abate, if not entirely remove, the large abuse and desecration of our Christian day of rest and worship by Sunday excursions offered by the railroads and other public conveyances; also that a committee of three be appointed by this body to bring to the attention of our legislators at the approaching session of the General Assembly this important subject.

We further recommend that our pastors be urged to distribute among our people proper literature bearing on this divinely enjoined duty to observe God's holy day.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. W. WOLLING, Chairman.
THOS. G. HERBERT, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Bible Society Board is able to report only a slight increase in the total amount contributed by the charges of the Conference over that reported a year ago. It regrets having to report an increase also in the number of preachers in charge who have made no reports.

The Board asks earnest attention to the following statement, which gives by districts the number of charges represented by reports, the number of preachers from whom no reports have been received, and the amounts contributed:

District.	Reports.	No Report.	Amount.
Anderson	12	6	$ 49.19
Charleston	21	2	146.57
Cokesbury	12	7	49.60
Columbia	15	11	62.51
Florence	19	3	100.68
Greenville	15	6	55.04
Kingstree	17	4	76.74
Marion	15	6	86.91
Orangeburg	14	5	66.04
Rock Hill	10	8	43.42
Spartanburg	22	2	90.32
Sumter	11	7	63.03
Total	182	68	$890.05

It will be noted that more than one-fourth of the preachers have made no report.

The total amount contributed represents an average contribution from our members of less than one cent. This certainly is not a gratifying expression of the interest of our preachers and people in the great missionary auxiliary of the Church in the work of extending, at home and abroad, the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Board, confident that the Conference is not satisfied with so low an average, and following the recommendation of the last General Conference of the Church, suggests and urges that for the next Conference year an average of two cents a member be accepted as the minimum measure of the obligation imposed by paragraph 137 of the Discipline.

The Board also suggests that, as failure to secure contributions for the American Bible Society usually results from postponing the collection until the end of the year, the preachers in charge give this matter their attention not later than April 1st.

CHURCH AT WASHINGTON.

To the South Carolina Conference: The Committee on Raising Funds for Our Church in Washington beg leave to report:

The collection on Saturday amounted to the sum of three thousand and thirty dollars. This amount was made up by the contributions of sixty-five preachers pledging ten dollars a year for four years; fourteen preachers pledging five dollars a year for four years; one preacher pledging a total of twenty-five dollars, and one preacher paying five dollars by check; and three laymen pledging ten dollars a year for four years.

The committee does not believe that this represents the wish of the South Carolina Conference. We believe that South Carolina Methodists are willing to bear their share of the enterprise and that this body is more than willing to stand by Bishop Kilgo, who is responsible for securing South Carolina's part of this great fund. Therefore we recommend upon the adoption of this report that the Presiding Bishop shall again present this cause and take a collection, so that brethren who were absent or busy on Saturday, may have the opportunity of pledging the remainder of South Carolina's duty.

The pledges for the Washington Church enterprise are payable during the next four Conference years, beginning December 5, 1911. As the enterprise is now under way, we recommend that the amounts due for the Conference year 1912 be raised, and paid during December, January, and February, and that payments for succeeding years be made during the same months. Any one wishing to pay the four years' subscription at one time may do so. These payments shall be made to a special treasurer of our Conference for the Washington Church Fund.

We recommend that I. W. Bowman, Orangeburg, S. C., be this treasurer. He will publish monthly in the Southern Christian Advocate the payments, and the names of parties paying the same, and will remit to the proper authorities on the first day of March, June, September, and December of each year.

Respectfully submitted,

John O. Willson, Chairman;
L. F. Beaty,
John F. Bolt.

We further recommend that 7,000 copies of the Minutes be published.

We nominate E. O. Watson and R. E. Turnipseed editors for the current year.

We recommend that E. O. Watson be duly authorized to contract for the aforesaid publication of the Minutes.

The account of the Secretary has been examined and found correct.

MEMOIRS.

REV. NEWTON KENNETH MELTON.

The Rev. Newton Kenneth Melton was born May 7, 1838, and died in Spartanburg, S. C., January 11, 1911. During the seventy-three years between these dates a great life was lived. He passed away quietly without a struggle in the early morning hours. For several months he had failed very rapidly and those near him knew he could not last very long.

Physically he had been a strong man. A good, well-developed body was one of his fine possessions which fitted him for the arduous work a Methodist itinerant is called on to do.

He was a member of the South Carolina Conference for fifty years. That half century was spent as follows: Three years spent on stations, two years spent on missions, thirty-four years spent on circuits, eleven years spent as superannuated preacher.

Those of us who came in close touch with this good man had the privilege of seeing the embodiment of strong purpose and conviction. He lived his truth and was able to speak it with an authority that comes only from a great life. He not only spoke the deep things, he lived them. Two points may be noted in his life as a member of the Conference, viz.: That he spent thirty-four years on circuits at a time when it took the best a man had in all respects to do the work. To have such a fine record to his credit certainly speaks well for him as a man. No work was slighted, and he did well and cheerfully what was assigned him by his Church. It was the privilege of the writer to follow Brother Melton on the Edgewood circuit in Columbia District. At that time his voice had failed to such an extent that he had to take the superannuated relation. He had done his best as a faithful servant on a hard circuit, and had so impressed the people that they spoke of him as a most accomplished gentleman, conscientious worker, and Christian spirit. The people did not forget Brother Melton, not because he was a great preacher, but because he was a great man.

He thought easily in theological terms, and it was his delight to handle the hard questions. He was thoroughly Arminian, and could maintain himself in argument with the scholar of Calvinistic bent. He had studied deeply in connection with the work he did as an itinerant.

The second point in his life as a member of the Conference is that eleven years were spent as a superannuated preacher. It seems a most trying experience for the man of God to be laid on the shelf, as it were, but Brother Melton stood the test of this experience for a long time, and never became morose nor bitter. It has been my pleasure many a time to sit by a warm fire in his home in his last days, and hear him talk, and feel the thrill of the strong man behind his words. I have seen him come quietly into his pew on Sunday morning and in the attitude of a reverent dignity listen to all his younger brother had to say in a most sympathetic way. His presence was an inspiration. In his death we lost a faithful friend, a consecrated worker, and a great man.

On November 23, 1865, he married Miss Catherine C. Dillard, who supported him in all his great purpose to live a faithful life. She, with eight children, survives him. Among his papers was found an envelope labeled "Consecration." In this envelope the following words were written in 1901: "Today I reconsecrate myself to the Lord, to be His henceforth, to do His will, and to glorify His name. I will endeavor by His grace and the aid of the Holy Spirit to renounce all sin, and to live a holy and Christian life. N. K. M."

When the chariots came, they found him ready. The only aching hearts he left were those who missed him, and many a heart remembers the blessing it received from his touch. May his gentle spirit rest on us today, and his heroism strengthen us in the coming days of labor and toil.

R. S. Truesdale.

Rev. Dove Tiller.

It was my honor and pleasure to be the pastor of what was then the Bishopville circuit in 1871 and 1872. It was during these two years that two of the finest of our men I have known in a Conference acquaintance of fifty-two years were recommended from that circuit to membership in the South Carolina Conference, namely, William A. Rogers, in 1872, and Dove Tiller, the year before. Providentially, it came, and providentially it comes to me, as at once a sad office and a distinct honor, first at the Columbia Conference (1906), and now here at Bennettsville, to pay the last tribute of this body to the memory of these two lovely, consecrated, and useful brethren in the order of their demise.

It is well nigh impossible, my dear brethren of the South Carolina Conference, for me to serve an occasion of this kind without mixing up myself with the memories and traditions of our honored dead. In this present case I hold it perfectly allowable for me to do so. From the first time I ever saw Dove Tiller, a handsome, ruddy, hopeful young preacher, forty years agone, to the last time I saw him then at the St. Xavier hospital, and looked into his triumphant face and felt his fraternal hand-clasp, only a few hours before his decease, there was formed a friendship and a fellowship between us two, which began at the beginning of our acquaintance and which ever increased with the growing opportunities of added years. Oh! he was my friend, and his friendship was a valued asset, and is still a valued asset, of my accumulating wealth of fragrant memory and substantial possession.

I shall miss him, but possibly not long. Our friendship has not been destroyed. Oh, no!

The Tillers were excellent Methodist people of the farmer class, and, as I knew them, lived on both sides of Lynch's River, in Chesterfield, Kershaw, and Sumter counties. One of my churches, on the Bishopville circuit, was interchangeably called "Bethany" and "Tiller's." I have known three generations of the family. In all that country you expected a Tiller to be a Methodist. I never knew one who was not. His mother —a Miss McLaurin—was of Presbyterian stock, but she herself was always a Methodist. He was worthy of the stock from which he came and true to the Methodism he inherited. He had an experience and on occasions meekly but confidently told it.

In my long connection with the South Carolina Conference God has been pleased now and then to give me souls to my ministry and occasionally revivals of religion have occurred in my various pastoral charges. These latter have almost uniformly taken place in connection with the special labors of my visiting brethren—evangelists and others. I mention here to the praise of the glory of divine grace, Brother Tiller's most useful assistance at one of my meetings many years ago. He was a boy preacher then; but gave early promise of the useful and fruitful ministry that followed. From the very start he preached in demonstration of the Spirit and in demonstration of power. It was his at the last, to look back over forty years of fruitful work in many churches he had served, and to claim: "The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there." (Ps. 87:6.)

He served his first appointment in 1872, following the Conference that met at Spartanburg, December 13, 1871, Bishop Paine presiding and Dr. F. M. Kennedy serving as Secretary. He continued effective through the rest of his life. He was two years a junior preacher; three years on stations; and was on circuits for the rest of his ministry. He served many of our very best appointments faithfully, efficiently, and acceptably. He spent two years in and around this beautiful city. His health gave way during the past year (1910), and though he took an appointment for the current Conference year, his health so rapidly and steadily declined, that he was not able to do any work at all on the Hampton circuit to which he was assigned by Bishop Hendrix.

He was born April 3, 1848, and died in the city of Charleston, whither he had been taken for special medical treatment, at an early hour on Thursday, April 13, 1911. How blest the righteous while he lives and when he dies! He was tenderly watched and cared for by Sister Tiller and his children, who divided their time while in the city between the hospital, where he was treated, and the district parsonage. All that could be done was done for him by intelligent professional skill, and the tender care of his family, and the prayer and sympathy of friends. Brother Walter Herbert (the Presiding Elder), with his Christian family, was certainly very, very kind. So were all the brethren as opportunity occurred.

It ought to be mentioned as a part of this memorial sketch that Brother Tiller, though not college bred, was a well-educated man. When I first knew him he was a youthful school teacher. For this work he had been definitely prepared at some of the best secondary schools in his section of the State. He came into the Conference well-fitted to take advantage of our excellent four years' course of study, and after that to continue the work of self-education. He was twice married and both of his wives were graduates of our Columbia College. He educated his children. His pious and cultured home was most friendly to his intellectual aspirations and a congenial retreat from the engrossing demands of the public work of his protracted and laborious ministry.

He was a strongly endowed and well-furnished laborer in the many lines of work usual in the pastorate of our Church. He was one of the sweetest singers among us. He was tender and spiritual and instructive in altar work in our revivals. His fine, well-modulated voice; his dignified, and impressive pose in the pulpit, tall and handsome man that he was, and his sober and solemn sense of his responsibility in the care and cure of souls, all these stood him well in hand as an instructive, edifying, earnest, and successful preacher. His beautiful, blameless life was the best of all. His record is among men and on high.

Dove Tiller has done his work faithfully and well. He did not live too long nor die too soon. For him to live was Christ; to die, gain. He has gone home to join the spirits of just men made perfect; to be with the angels, and, which is far better, to be with Christ. Please God, I mean to meet him in heaven.

"In heaven above, where all is love,
And there's no parting there."

SAMUEL A. WEBER.

REV. GEORGE WILLIAMS WALKER, D. D.

George Williams Walker was born February 11, 1848. He was a son of that man of sturdy mould, that safe and sane leader in our Conference, Rev. Hugh A. C. Walker. His mother was a sister of our honored Bishop, William M. Wightman. Both heredity and environment—the environment of the cultured itinerant's home—made for the simple, unaffected, consecrated manhood he exemplified.

Dr. Walker graduated from Wofford College in 1869. For several years thereafter he engaged in teaching. In December, 1873, he united with the South Carolina Conference. He was junior preacher on Greenwood circuit in 1874; junior on Chester circuit in 1875; pastor at Winnsboro in 1876, and to April, 1877, when he was removed to Bethel church, Charleston, to fill out the term of Dr. W. H. Fleming, who had died. He served the Darlington church in 1878 and 1879; was transferred to Southwest Missouri Conference, and stationed at Lexington in 1880 and 1881. Returning to his old Conference he served Summerville in 1882, and Darlington again in 1883. In the following year (1884) he began his work at Paine College, first as professor in 1884 and 1885, and then as president until he fell on sleep in the city of Augusta, Ga.

It was at Paine College that Dr. Walker's real and monumental work was done. He went to this service to the needy African of our own land with the same spirit of the true missionary, that would have carried him to China had the finger of Providence pointed that way. He was peculiarly fitted for the delicate work that lay before him. Behind him and in him were the best traditions of the old South. He was as well a man of balanced judgment, conservative spirit, fine culture, resourceful, and tactful.

No wonder, then, that Dr. Walker succeeded in a remarkable degree, nor that his work received recognition throughout Southwide Methodism. His brethren of our own, and of all the Conferences, honored and trusted him. His dusky pupils clung to him with rare and beautiful devotion.

It is a peculiar pleasure for the writer, on behalf of this Conference, to give the modest gentleman and humble Christian this meed of praise. He would not deal in overstatement, for that would be out of keeping with our brother's character and life. But all the more should this emphatic approval of his work honor ourselves and him.

Dr. Walker was happily married to Miss Sue Goodrich, of Augusta, Ga. Theirs was an atmosphere of heaven.

The health of our brother suddenly failed in the late summer of 1910, while on his annual vacation on Sullivan's Island. He seemed to improve, however, under the skill of the physician, and the gentle care of home. But his work was done; and May 28, 1911, the Father called him to the home above.

Farewell, Christian gentleman, true missionary, dear friend and brother, thy example will not be lost upon us!

J. Lemacks Stokes.

Rev. David Hucks.

David Hucks, son of Benjamin E. and Isabella Hucks, was born in Socastee township, Horry county, South Carolina, March 4, 1861. December 10, 1891, he was married to Miss Mary W. Stalvey, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Isaiah Stalvey, of Socastee, S. C. To this union there were born seven children, of whom only two survived the earliest infancy. One of these, a son, died only a few days prior to his father; the other, a sweet little girl of four years, still lives a genuine sunbeam in the mother's life. Brother Hucks died June 14, 1911, at Pinewood, S. C., and was buried at Socastee.

Entering the South Carolina Conference the latter part of November, 1890, he spent his first year as junior preacher on the Abbeville circuit and served the following charges in the order named: Abbeville circuit, Williston, Hardeeville, Hendersonville, Enoree, Jonesville, Heath Springs, Oswego and Pinewood. In length his pastorates were as follows: Two of one year, two of two years, one of three years, and three of four years. In his last charge he had spent just half a year when his death occurred.

Except in the rural schools of his early home, Brother Hucks' educational advantages were very limited, yet few men of equal endowment made better use of their opportunities. He finished acceptably the course of study provided for the first four years of the preacher's membership in the Conference and throughout his ministry applied himself diligently that the man of God might be "thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

Personally considered David Hucks was a Christian gentleman, every inch of him, in the large meaning of those words. He was a man of gentle manners, calm temperament, attractive disposition, and fine character. He was truly an amiable fellow. No good man ever found it hard to make friends with him, for his heart was an open house to such and his delight was to have fellowship with them that loved righteousness. To know him was to love him. Of him it may be truly said he loved the brethren. His personal religious experience was an unfailing source of comfort to him. He felt deeply the saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and delighted to testify of his conversion and religious experience.

As a preacher and pastor he was a valuable member of the Conference. Wherever he was sent it was all right. If in his judgment an appointment was not a felicitous one he gave his opinion a secondary place and bent his every effort to make his ministry a blessing to them unto whom he was sent. As a pastor he was neither indifferent nor perfunctory, but diligent and faithful, giving a sympathetic attention to the sick frequently when his own body needed rest and care.

His preaching was a straightforward, unpretentious presentation of the gospel. His one aim was to save souls and he made everything else contribute thereto. To use his own language, his heart hunger found expression in such exalted sentiments as this: "I want to be an effective preacher, one that can save souls." Those who knew him never looked to hear in his preaching a display of rhetoric or oratory, but found themselves always charmed with the earnest desire of the minister to bring the unsaved to Christ and to build up the faith of the believing. His sermons were without doubt, prayerfully and carefully prepared and delivered with feeling and fervor. The fact that fifteen of the twenty-one years of his ministry were spent in four charges is an abiding testimony of the esteem in which he was held as a man, a pastor, and a preacher, by the people he served.

In his death the Church has suffered the loss of a valuable and serviceable preacher, the State a loyal and useful citizen, the wife and child a most affectionate and devoted husband and father. May the grace and peace of the Lord of all compass round about, shield and bless the wife and child.

"Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ!
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

E. S. JONES.

THE PREACHERS' WIVES.

The kingdom of Christ in the world has been touched and influenced by woman as no other cause or institution. The relations of Christ to woman while He was on earth were most beautiful and tender. In His attitude to woman He gave to all ministers an example which they should imitate. And then how noble was woman's work for the Master. How glorious was the work of the woman who gave Him birth and who had the sacred trust of caring for Him, and training Him, who grew up in wisdom and in favor with God and man. Then what a high place women have in their tender and unstinted ministries toward Him until the end. It was that company of women, who, with John, stood near His cross, looking on in loving pity on the suffering Saviour. This scene was the only bright spot in that awful, dark day. And from the meeting of Mary with Jesus at the open tomb until this good day they have been first in service for their Lord. No class of Christian women deserve more praise for work for their Lord than the faithful women in our parsonages, where in patience and constancy they do their work, holding up the preachers' hands, and making success possible. A very large number of men have achieved success because of the good women God gave them as their wives. I give here a loving tribute to each of those who have died during the past year:

MRS. ANNE MUROWE LAWTON.

Mrs. Anne Murowe Lawton was born in Orangeburg county, South Carolina, in 1829, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julia Phillips, in Ninety-Six, S. C. She was married to Rev. Wm. H. Lawton, of the South Carolina Conference, in 1852. And with that big-hearted preacher of the gospel shared the hardships of the Christian ministry until his triumphant death at Forreston in 1893. Her sacred dust sleeps beside that of her sainted husband in the Presbyterian cemetery at Ninety-Six, S. C. She leaves only two children, Dr. Willis Lawton and Mrs. Julia Phillips. By the above we see that her life extended over a period of eighty-two years. Her spirit has at last reached its everlasting rest, and the wayworn pilgrim is at home with God.

MRS. LOUISA MATILDA BAKER.

Mrs. Louisa Matilda Baker was born in Marion county, South Carolina, August 17, 1842, and died at Fork, S. C., March 1, 1911. She was the daughter of Rev. David Legette and Martha Legette. She was married to Rev. W. B. Baker, of Marion county, who was a local preacher for nine years; in 1884 he joined the South Carolina Conference. This was a most happy union. Through all these years she was a most cheerful and useful helper in her husband's high calling. She leaves six children, four daughters and two sons. These, with their bereaved father, can realize their great loss. Her children rise up and call her blessed, and her husband also praises her. For such there can be only one place, and that is where Christ dwells.

MRS. MARTHA CELESTINE PLATT.

Mrs. Martha Celestine Platt was born in Charleston (now Orangeburg) county, South Carolina, in 1844. Her maiden name was Mimms. She became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when quite a child. She was married to Rev. J. B. Platt, of the South Carolina Conference, in 1872, and died August 11, 1911, at the home of her daughter at Wedgefield, S. C. Our sister came from an old and prominent Methodist family. Reared in a strong Methodist community it is most natural that she should be strong in her love and loyalty to the Church. It was a most fortunate event when she became the wife of that noble man of God, Brother John B. Platt. In his parsonage home she was ever the tender and loving helper to her husband in his work, and when by his death she was left alone with her four children, she met her responsible task wisely and lovingly, in the support and training of her children, who bless her memory today.

MRS. SARAH BIVINGS AVANT.

Mrs. Sarah Bivings Avant, wife of the late Rev. A. P. Avant, of the South Carolina Conference, was born in Cleveland county, North Carolina, October 22, 1832, and died in Spartanburg, S. C., September 25, 1911. She was the only child of Martin Goode and Malinda Walker. Her mother died when she was an infant, and she was reared by her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Goode. She was married to Rev. A. P. Avant, September 23, 1849. Brother Avant died in 1889. Eight children survive her. She was converted and joined the Methodist Church when only ten years old. She traveled with her husband in the South Carolina Conference for forty years. She was always willing and ready to go anywhere the Bishop sent them. She had been paralyzed for a year before her death, unable to speak at all, but always bright and cheerful, an inspiration to her children and friends. Truly one of the mothers in Israel has gone.

MRS. PATTIE PARKER NOLAND.

Mrs. Pattie Parker Noland, daughter of Captain L. J. Parker and Mrs. Bettie Parker, of Aiken, S. C., was born March 23, 1872, and died in the parsonage at Starr, S. C., November 20, 1911. She was married to Rev. J. Hubert Noland, of the South Carolina Conference, April 4, 1894. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in early childhood. It will be seen by the above that she had been the wife of a Methodist preacher eighteen years, and a child of God all her life. She was a most lovable woman, an attractive personality, possessing a magnetic nature, made so by the fullness of the Christ spirit within. The sweetness of her life touched all hearts, and won all she met, making her an ideal daughter, sister, friend, and wife. Her married life was all one could be, setting forth the union of Christ and His Church. O how the heart-broken parents and husband mourn! but in sweet submission, and blessed hope, for where she has gone is heaven.
